YOUR RIGHTS

WHEN IT COMES TO YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION, YOU HAVE CERTAIN RIGHTS TO:

This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

For certain types of disclosures of information in your medical record at a psychiatric hospital, New York State law may be more stringent than the federal law. For example the New York Mental Hygiene Law generally does not permit the disclosure of a clinical record except under circumstances specifically set forth in the law. The Hospital will follow New York law when it is more restrictive.

Get a paper copy of your medical record

You can ask to see or get a paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this. We do not have an electronic record.

We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 10 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct your medical record

You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this. We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. We will say "yes" to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care. If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a list of those with whom we have shared information

You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, with whom we shared it, and why. We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide this accounting for free.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

You can ask for a copy of this notice at any time. We will provide you with a copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting Monica Broderick at 914-763-8151 ext. 2349. You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
